HYBRID MODE

2023 - ICSDN

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN NANOTECHNOLOGY

INVITATION

The NCEAC and MUET invites all the scholars and professionals across the globe to attend “International Conference on Sustainable Development in Nanotechnology (ICSDN)” during March 20-21, 2023 at Jamshoro, Pakistan, that includes prompt keynote speaker, oral talks, and poster presentations.

This highly exciting event “ICSDN” will provide you an excellent platform to discussion, and networking place for academics, researchers, professional, and industry representatives. The theme of this conference is to “explore the role of nanotechnology in sustainable developments for our common society problems”. ICSDN aims to develop critical assessment of existing work and future trends in nanotechnology research. ICSDN is solely sponsored by the Higher Education Commission (HEC) Pakistan.
